

In My God, Chris Nichol meets ten New Zealanders for animated conversations about life, God, the universe and what drives us forward. Each guest has a unique spiritual outlook, which influences their thinking and how they cope with the challenges thrown up by everyday life.

In Series 3, Chris discovers why 'being broken' can be a good thing, how to 'give light', when music unites people across cultures, and why images of the naked Jesus can cause so much trouble...

Series Two is ten half hour programmes.
